Please attach the following essays to this form: (Essays must be double-spaced, type written)

- 1) Describe God's call on your life, whether you feel called to ministry or not. What does the Bible teach regarding His call on every persons' life? (250 words)
- 2) Who is your role model and/or mentor as a person who has responded to the call of God? Why have you selected this person? What characteristics in his her life would you like to emulate? Would you be willing to invite this person to the conference if you are selected to attend? (250 words)
- 3) In what ways do you feel the church has failed to do the work of Christ here on earth? What segments of the population have we failed to minister to? How would you remedy this situation? (250 words)

I, _____, understand the requirements for participation in The Call Conference at Northwest Nazarene University. I understand this to include advance reading of Can You Drink the Cup* by Henri J. M. Nouwen and 100 percent participation in all required activities while on the campus of NNU. I also understand that failure to meet these requirements forfeits my right to receive college credit for the conference.

*Nouwen's book, Can you Drink the Cup makes reference to drinking in general and to wine specifically. This is not the focus of the book; rather "the cup" is used as a metaphor for our lives and ministries and how we fill them. Neither the Church of the Nazarene nor the Call Conference endorses the use of alcohol as a beverage. However, we feel the value of Nouwen's book exceeds this issue.

As a part of the Call Conference, your student will participate in a Media Literacy Series. The films are chosen and shown to help participants consider how media continually shapes culture and to explore its effects. Each of these films is rated PG or PG-13 by the Motion Picture Association of America. Conference sponsors believe these films have excellent teaching potential, but contain content that warrants a PG or PG-13 rating. By signing below you consent to allow your son/daughter to participate in film viewings.
